

Sample Assessment Rubric Template

	Beginning (Below Standard)	Developing (Progressing toward Standard)	Accomplished (At Standard)	Score
	1	2	3
Storytelling in Minecraft	The activity/ activities are not finished. There are no instructions in the world on how to complete the activity.	The activity/ activities are fully finished. The instructions on how to complete the activity are present, however it is not very clear how to complete the activity or what it represents.	The activity/ activities present an original and creative build in Minecraft and are fully finished, students have specific instructions on how to complete the activity. It is very clear what needs to be done to complete the activity.
Use of coding concepts	The activity/ activities have hardcoded solutions present or students are not able to explain what coding concept is used.	The activity/ activities make use of 2 concepts, students are not very clear on what they are or why they are used.	The activity / activities make use of multiple coding concepts (at least 3), students are able to explain what concepts are used and why.
Quality Assurance	Students don't have a record of coding solution and the activity cannot be completed.	Students have a record of coding solution, however the activity doesn't function as intended. The activity/ activities are not fully completable.	Students have a fully documented record of coding solution for the created activity and the activity was thoroughly tested and functions as intended. The activity/ activities are fully completable.
Teamwork	Students lacked organization ability. They also struggled with sharing roles and responsibilities, requiring a lot of support from facilitators/ educators to help with sharing roles and responsibilities.	Students were somewhat well-organized about sharing their workload. They required some support from facilitators/ educators to help with sharing roles and responsibilities.	Students were well-organized about sharing their workload, splitting up roles and responsibilities. They also did an excellent job at communicating their solutions.	